Etymology and definitions. Secular and secularity derive from the Latin word saeculum which meant "of a generation, belonging to an age" or denoted a period of about one hundred years. In the ancient world, saeculum was not defined in contrast to any sacred concerns and had a freestanding usage in Latin. It was in Christian Latin of medieval times, that saeculum was used for distinguishing ...

vagueness. The characteristic of words or phrases whose meaning is not determined with precision. Use of one or more vague terms typically renders it impossible to establish the truth or falsity of the sentences in which they appear. Example: "The temperature is warm today." is difficult to evaluate because there is no clear borderline between "warm" and "not warm".

A sacramental is a sacred sign that signifies effects obtained through the Church's intercession. While the 7 Sacraments are Christ-instituted and do exactly what they signify ex opere operato ("from the deed done"), sacramentals are Church-instituted and work chiefly ex opere operantis, that is, through the pious disposition of the one using them.
